

Insertion instructions SAMINA hip booster

Pull the intended slats in a position close to the central elastic bracket. Insert the hip booster and thread with the slats.

Please note that the slats should not be completely pulled out but only to the central elastic bracket at a maximum on each respective side. Thereby, the insertion is simplified and the stability guaranteed.

